ITINERARY

DAY 1: ATHENS - CORINTH CANAL – EPIDAURUS – NAFPLIO – MYCENAE - OLYMPIA

Our driver will pick you up from your hotel, leave Athens, and drive towards the Peloponnese region. After a quick stop at the Corinth Canal, we will drive to our next destination, the Archaeological site of Mycenae, the Palace of Agamemnon, the Museum, and the Treasury of Atreus. The next stop will be at Epidaurus, where we'll visit the famous Theatre, renowned for its incredible acoustics, and the archaeological site of Asclepion, an ancient hospital and sanctuary dedicated to the god of medicine, Asclepius. The next stop will be the City of Nafplio, the first Capital of Modern Greece for a few years after Greece gained independence from the Ottoman Empire. Have lunch in the Old City and then explore the tourist area, characterized by its narrow streets, in this traditional part of Nafplio. We will then drive to Olympia, where we will spend the night.

DAY 2: OLYMPIA – ATHENS

The following morning, we will visit the archaeological site, the Stadium where the ancient Olympic games were held, and the two museums on the site, the Archaeological Museum and the Olympic Museum. We can also visit the Technological Museum of Archimedes in the village of Olympia. After this visit, we can have lunch in Olympia, and later, we'll drive along the scenic road over Mount Mainalon, heading back to Athens, arriving in the late afternoon.
