ITINERARY

DAY 1: ATHENS – CORINTH CANAL - ANCIENT CORINTH – ANCIENT NEMEA – MYCENAE – NAFPLIO

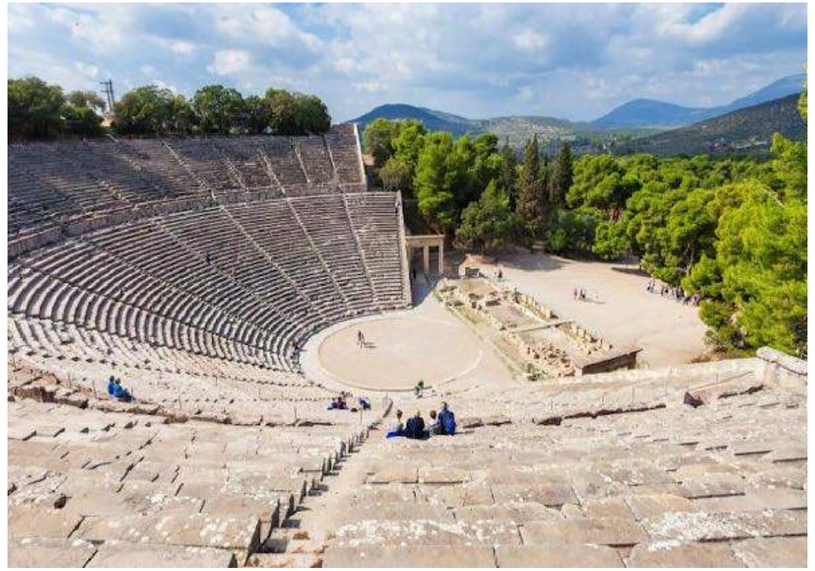

Our driver will pick you up from your hotel, leave Athens, and drive towards the Peloponnese region. After a quick stop at the Corinth Canal, we will drive to our next destination, the Archaeological Site of Ancient Corinth, where we will visit the Museum and the Ancient Agora. At the Ancient Agora, we will see the Altar of the Apostle Paul, where he stood to address the Jews and residents of Ancient Corinth to convert them to Christianity. After this visit, we can enjoy lunch in a traditional taverna before moving on to our next stop in Ancient Nemea, where we will visit the Archaeological site, including the Temple of Zeus and the Archaeological Museum. Nemea's Stadium is also nearby, where Nemea's famous athletic events, dedicated to Zeus, took place. We will visit one of the small wineries in the Nemea Valley before visiting the Archaeological Site of Mycenae, the Palace of Agamemnon, the Museum, and the Treasury of Atreus. The last stop is the city of Nafplio, where you can visit the traditional, historic part of the city, complete with numerous coffee shops and restaurants on its small, narrow streets. Nafplio was the first Capital City of Modern Greece for a few years after Greece's Independence from the Ottoman Empire. We'll stay overnight in Nafplio.

DAY 2: NAFPLIO – EPIDAURUS – ATHENS

After breakfast, we can visit the War Museum and the Palamidi Castle before we drive to Epidaurus, where you will see the Museum, the famous Theatre with exceptional acoustics, and the area of the Asclepıeion, an ancient Hospital named after the god of medicine, Asclepius. After visiting Epidaurus, we can have lunch on the way back to Athens in a scenic environment, arriving in the city late in the afternoon.
